Introduction

In this book I have attempted to record all I could of my family history. This is the fourth version of the book and extends the story back and fills many of the gaps. Of course this is still not a complete history and I will continue to research for a further edition. The missing reference numbers show just how much more is yet to be found.

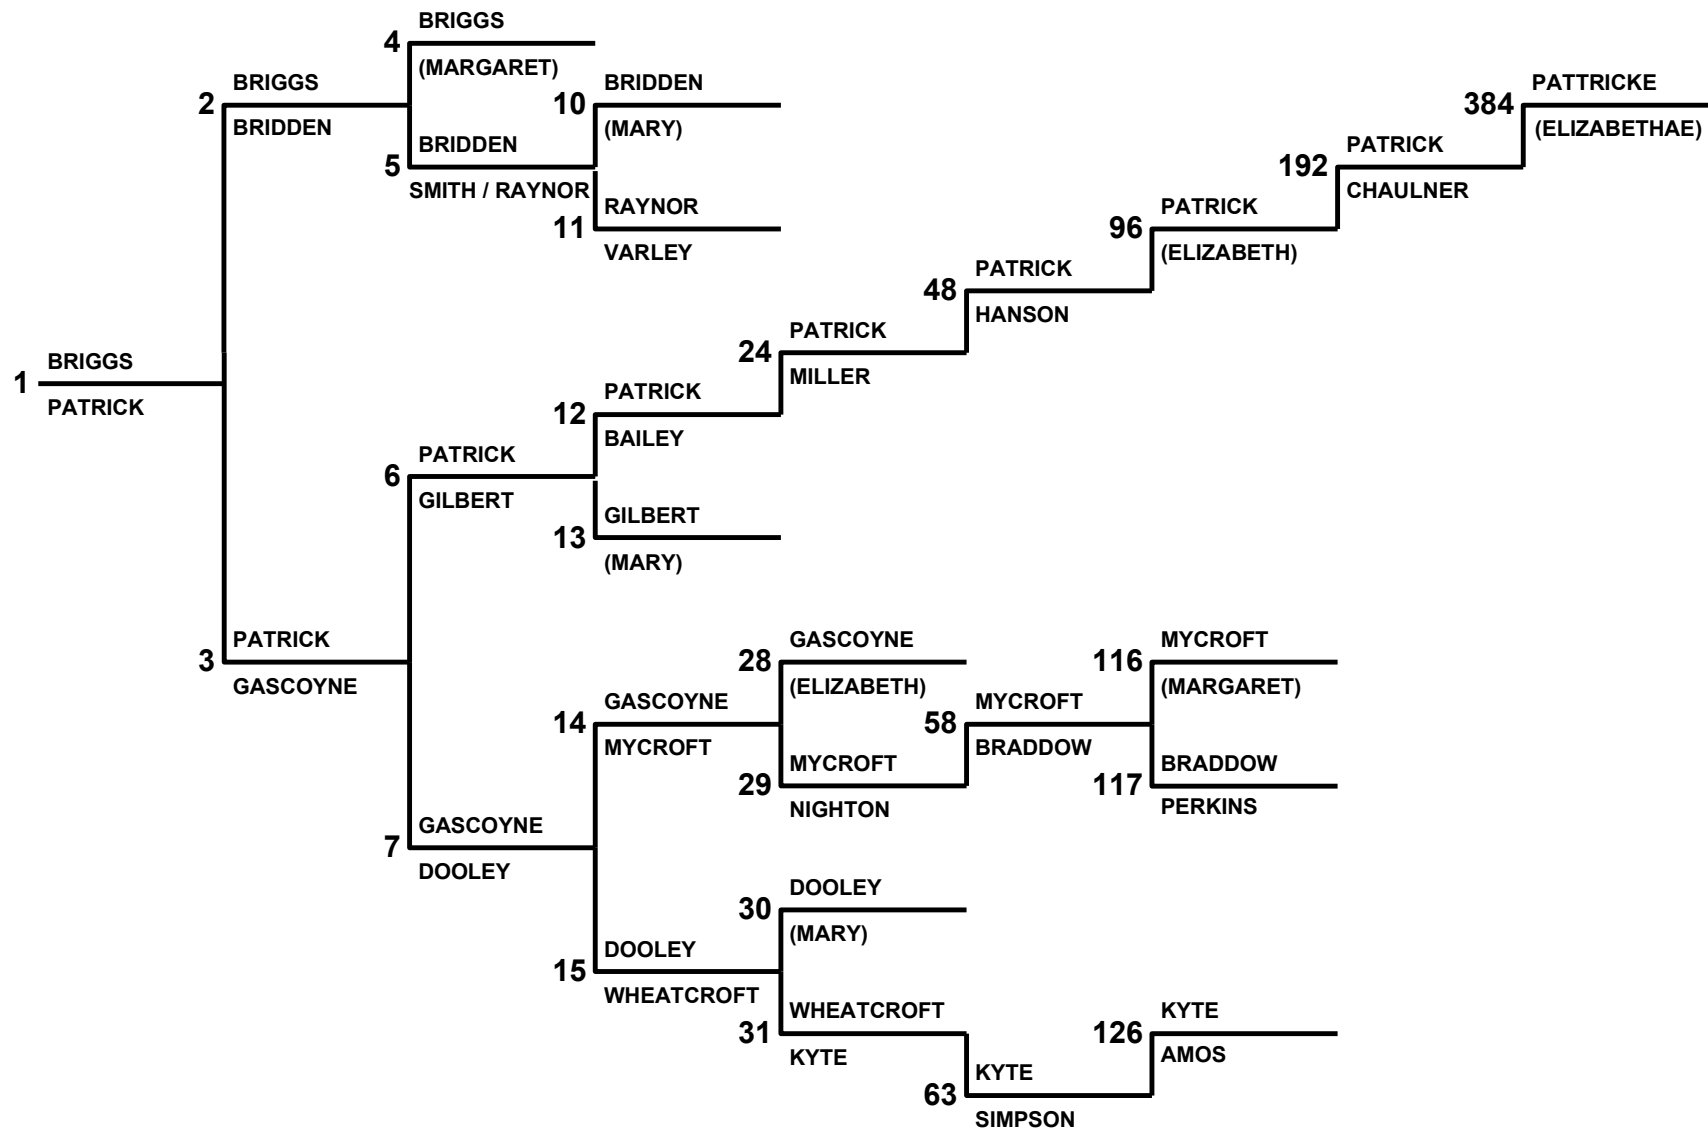

My thanks to all those who have helped to make this book possible. With special thanks to my sisters Edna and Eva with whom I shared memories of our family. Also to my husband Bob and our son Mark, to Peter Patrick, to Doris Wood, to my cousin Stephen Best, and to Bob's cousin Eileen Symonds.

My memoirs, and Bob's, can be found at www.mooch.org.uk/serious/serious.html

1. BRIGGS / PATRICK

George Briggs was born on 24th April 1889. George's birth was entered in the Family Bible as 2nd May, and because of this he said he celebrated his birthday on both dates. He was baptised at Salem Methodist Church, Somercotes, Derbyshire, on the 5th January 1890. His father was Joseph Briggs, a colliery labourer, and his mother was Ellen Hannah, whose maiden name was Bridden. George was born at Seeley Terrace, Somercotes, and he lived there until his marriage.

Elsie Patrick was born on 10th August 1888. Her mother was Jane Patrick, nee Gascoyne. Her mother registered her birth, but did not enter her husband's name as the father, or his occupation. Elsie was born at the house of William Gascoyne, her grandfather, at High Street, Somercotes, Derbyshire.

At the age of two Elsie was living with her uncle and aunt, Samuel and Edith Dooley, and their six-year-old son, Alfred. Her sister, Elizabeth, who was two years older, continued to live with her grandfather, William Gascoyne.

In her early teens Elsie worked as a domestic servant, cooking and sewing. she worked for a family named Taylor in Alfreton, and later for a family named Smedley, in Blackpool (Una remembers a visit from 'Grandma' Smedley in the 1930s).

Elsie and George had known each other from very early childhood. They were married on 23rd December 1911 at the Baptist Chapel, Swanwick, Derbyshire. George was a coal miner. The witnesses were William Briggs, one of George's brothers, and Edith Victoria Dooley, who was Elsie's cousin. The Registrar was John J. Simpson.

Their first child was Edna Lillian, who was born on 8th July 1914, and baptised on 2nd August 1914. Eva Clarice was born on 19th October 1916, and baptised on the 20th November 1916...Their only son Harold Raymond, was born on 4th March 1920, and was baptised on 4th April 1920. Harold died of pneumonia two months later on 9th May 1920. Their fourth child was Una May who was born on 24th May 1925, and baptised on 16th July 1925. Edna was born in Askern, Yorkshire, and the other children were born at 23 Leabrooks Road, Somercotes.

When they left 23 Leabrooks Road, in 1927, they moved to 'Sunneymede', Sleetmoor Lane, Somercotes, and soon after this they moved to 46 Wilford Road, Nottingham, opposite the 'Imperial Cinema', where they owned and ran a fish and chips and, wet fish shop. In 1931 they sold the first shop and started another similar business, about half a mile away at Wilford Crescent, Nottingham.

They had now bought a newly built house, 'Wavecrest', 12 Roland Avenue, in the village of Wilford, just south of Nottingham. The river Trent overflowed its banks and flooded this house many times.

In 1952, now that all their daughters were married, and George was near retirement age, they bought a bungalow, 'Roselea', 114 George Street, Mablethorpe, Lincolnshire. On the 3rd February 1953 the North Sea broke through the sea defences and invaded a large area of the east coast, and the bungalow was badly damaged by floodwater. Elsie, who was alone at the time, was trapped by the flood. She was rescued and taken to Loath. She had to travel in wet clothes through the storm in an open top lorry. This may have contributed to her death.

George's occupation had changed over the years. At 22 was a coal miner. One mine at which he worked was Morwoods, Somercotes. He was trained as a mine manager, in Bentley, Yorkshire. He was an accomplished musician. He played, and taught others to play, the violin and piano. He played in the cinema to accompany silent films, and sometimes he played with an orchestra, or with a dance band.

In the early 1920's he was an Insurance Society manager. Later he ran the fish shops, with the assistance of his daughter Edna. About 1935 George sold the 2nd shop and became a salesman for Star Stores, Nottingham. (The Star Stores was in Lower Parliament Street, and the site was the Antibo Restaurant c2004.) By 1938 he began working as a credit-trading agent for the Nottingham Co-operative Society, and he continued in this occupation through the 2nd World War, and until his retirement.

Elsie died of heart failure and bronchitis on 28th December 1954. George died on 7th March 1964 of an aneurysm of the abdominal aorta. They both died in Mablethorpe, and were cremated at Wilford Hill Crematorium, Nottinghamshire.

2. BRIGGS / BRIDDEN

Joseph Briggs was born on the 12th March 1837, just too early to be on the Central Registry of Births, Marriages and Deaths, which started on 1st July 1837. His birth was recorded in the Family Bible. His father was John Briggs, a farm labourer.

Within the family it was said that he was born somewhere in Yorkshire, but the censuses of 1861, 1871, 1881 and 1891 record his place of birth as Peterborough, Buckingham, or NK (not known).

Ellen Hannah Bridden was born on 7th July 1851, at Oakerthorpe, South Winfield, Derbyshire. Her father was Solomon Bridden, a coal miner, her mother's name was Hannah Bridden, nee Smith.

Ellen Hannah and Joseph were married on 1st June 1867 at Birchwood Chapel, Alfreton, Derbyshire. The Registrar was Francis Mather. Joseph was a colliery labourer. Ellen Hannah signed the marriage certificate with an 'X'. Witnesses were Samuel Cook and Pamela Bridden.

Their first child was a daughter, Elizabeth, born on 3rd March 1868. A son, John, was born on 15th September 1869. Thomas was born on 25th September 1871. Joseph was born on 14th January 1873, but he died in infancy. Elizabeth died at 5 years of age, on 19th September 1873. William was born on 10th September 1874, but died before 1881. Another son was named Joseph, he was born on 29th March 1876. Annie was born on 29th June 1877. James was born on 28th January 1878, but died on 2nd December 1879. Ada was born on 29th September 1879. Florence was born on 27th September 1883. Another son was named William, he was born on 15th March 1888. George was born in 1889, and his birth certificate gives the date as 24th April, although the Family Bible shows the date as 2nd May.

Elizabeth was born at Birk's Terrace, Somercotes, Derbyshire, but all the other children were born at Seeley Terrace, Somercotes.

The family believed that Joseph was a pit-boy at Moorwood Pit, in Somercotes, at the age of 6 years. He worked all his life as a coal miner, and as a colliery banksman. Joseph died on 7th April 1906, aged 69 years. Cause of death was Asthma and Bronchitis. His death was registered by his son, John.

Ellen Hannah married again on 1st October 1909. She married Walter Miles who was 57 years of age. He was a widower who lived in Leabrooks Road, Somercotes. He was a coal miner. The marriage was at the Baptist Chapel, Swanwick, Derbyshire. The witnesses were John R. Gascoigne and Pamela Gascoigne. The Registrar was John J. Simpson.

Joseph died at Somercotes, on 7th April 1906 of Asthma Bronchitis. His son John was present at his death. He was 69 years of age.

Ellen Hannah died at 7 Seeley Terrace, Somercotes on 10th January 1925, of Paralysis Agitans [Parkinson's Disease] and Angina Pectoris. Present at her death was Annie Parkin, her daughter, who lived at 34 Langley Avenue, Somercotes. She was 73years of age.

In Leabrooks cemetery there is a marble headstone and curb. The inscription reads:

Ellen Hannah - Wife of Joseph Briggs - died Jan.10th 1925 - 73years

Thomas - Son of above - died October 23rd 1905 - 34years

Jane and Zachary were married on 5th June 1887 at the Baptist Chapel, Swanwick, Derbyshire. Zachary gave his occupation as miner. Both gave their address as Somercotes, Derbyshire. Their first child, Elizabeth, was born on 6th June 1887, the day after their marriage, at High Street, Somercotes. Elsie, their second child, was born on 10th August 1888. Jane registered the birth, but she did not give the name, or occupation, of the father of the baby, who was born at the home of Jane's father, William Gascoyne.

In the 1891 census we have been unable to trace Jane. Zachary was now lodging with his sister and brother-in-law, Ann and Edwin Weightman, at Leabrooks Lane, Somercotes. Elizabeth was with her grandfather, William Gascoyne, Uncle Pharoah, and aunt Elizabeth, in Nottingham Road, Somercotes. Elsie was with her uncle, Samuel Dooley, aunt Edith, and their son Alfred, at Birks Terrace, Somercotes.

Jane's third child was Edith, born on 23rd June 1895 at Union House, Belper, Derbyshire. Once again no father's name was recorded, but the birth certificate gives Jane's occupation as laundress.

In the 1901 census Jane's occupation is given as 'laundress' and she is living with George Peach - a widower with two sons: George aged nine; and Herbert aged seven. Both sons were born in Selston, Nottinghamshire. George Peach was born in Kirkby, Notts, and was 52 years of age and he was a 'coal miner and lower underground worker'. His deceased wife was Harriet Peach.

Jane had four more children, and after their Christian names they were all given an additional name and registered as Peach Patrick. Winifred was born on 7th December 1897. Witnesses were Samuel and Elizabeth Dixon. The bride and groom and the witnesses each signed the Register with an 'X'.

Isaiah was an ironstone getter, and on the 18th June 1845, just 35 days after their marriage, he was killed. With another man and two 14 year old workers he was ascending out of the pit at Codnor where they were employed. They arrived at the top, but one of the boys fell onto the spring, which secured the bridge tree over the pit, and this caused the bridge tree to give way, and the boy fell to the bottom of the pit, followed by Isaiah and the other man. All three were shockingly mutilated. The banksman was able to quickly replace the bridge tree and in so doing saved the other boy's life. The Coroner's Inquest returned a verdict of accidental death.
